

H. W. WADLEIGH,
COMMISSION MERCHANT;
LEATHER AND HIDES,
SOLE AGT. FOR GONDOLO TANNIN CO.'S
CHESTNUT OAK EXTRACT.

239 to 245 Congress St.

Boston, July 8, 1892.

Estate of Charles Lobenstein,

Clarington, Ohio.

Gentlemen:-

Referring to our late correspondence in regard to your rough leather which I am holding at 14¢ per pound; I have to-day run across a customer who offers 13¢ for it, and as he desires to use it for a special purpose the price is doubtless more than anyone else is likely to give; and I feel like advising you, by all means, to allow me to close the sale. I hardly think there would be any gain by holding the stock until August. On receipt of this kindly give me answer by wire (at my expense) as I promised to give my customer an answer by Monday. He, therefore, has left his offer open until that time.

Awaiting your favors, I remain,

Very truly yours,

H. W. Wadleigh
G. Daniels

Dictated by H. W. W.

July 8, 1888.

Estate of Charles Coburnstein,

Charington, Ohio.

Gentlemen:-

Referring to our late correspondence in regard to your rough leather which I am holding at 14¢ per pound; I have to-day run across a customer who offers 15¢ for it, and as he desires to use it for a special purpose the price is doubtless more than anyone else is likely to give; and I feel like advising you, by all means, to allow me to close the sale. I hardly think there would be any gain by holding the stock until August. On receipt of this kindly give me answer by wire (at my expense) as I promised to give my customer an answer by Monday. He, therefore, has left his offer open until that time.

Awaiting your favors, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Dictated by H. W. W.